

HOLDS SANTI CRIMINALLY LIABLE

Completing his investigation of the fatal automobile accident in Grotton on the afternoon of Friday, Nov. 14, Coroner Franklin H. Brown has found Victor Santi of North Stonington criminally liable for the accident, and the man will be presented in the Grotton town court on Wednesday morning. The coroner has forwarded his finding to Prosecutor Warren Burrows of the Grotton court.

Santi was the driver of a Ford car which was in collision with an automobile bus driven by P. George Gaudette of Westport. Both men have been under bonds of $1,000 while the coroner has been holding his investigation.

Albert Fiorini, 20, of 41 Leeward street, Grotton, was injured and died a few hours later at the hospital. He was walking with his brother on the dirt road alongside the cement road in front of the New London Ship and Engine company when the bus and the Ford car collided, causing the bus to upset and pinning Fiorini against a wall with a 150 pound stone across the back of his neck. Fiorini was terribly crushed about the abdomen and died from his injuries.

The coroner had a number of witnesses before him whose testimony made it appear that Santi was to blame for the accident. They testified that Santi was passing the Gaudette bus and out in too close ahead of the bus, causing the collision and forcing the bus off to one side so that it toppled over. The testimony also served to show that Santi was traveling at a dangerous rate of speed, possibly 40 miles an hour. One witness said that when Gaudette remonstrated with Santi after the accident for the speed at which he was driving his car, Santi's answer was: "Me in country, go fast as like."

Along on substantially the same lines of endeavor—teaching the English language the elements of patriotism and obedience to rule and civic law. My father was an abolitionist. I have been a republican all my life. I was an enthusiastic admirer of Theodore Roosevelt; believe that Henry Cabot Lodge is right in his fight in the United States senate. I opposed the so-called "McClure Code" and educational measures before the last legislature. I was appointed a member of the state board of education by Governor Holcomb May, 1915.

Mr. Ames' parents were George and Lucy Ames, who were both teachers in their early lives. Both were born, lived and died in Killingly. The late Hon. Anthony Ames of Danvers, a former member of the state board of education was an uncle of Mr. Ames. Mrs. Willard S. Danforth of Danvers, a teacher of music and Mrs. Seth C. Spaulding of Danvers, a school teacher now under pension, are sisters of Mr. Ames. It is said that there is no school in New England where the grammar school pupils sing as well as the Brown school. This enviable reputation is traced to Mr. Ames, who is a trained musician, and entered into the musical work of the pupils with his own zeal as into the other branches of their instruction.

Mr. Ames was a member of the Principal's Twenty-five Congregational Educational and Teachers' clubs and the Hartford Chamber of Commerce. He was a deacon of the South Congregational church, and was chairman of the committee on pensions of the state Teachers' association. This veteran educator is universally beloved and his great influence in the community life has been greatly felt and appreciated. Some of the foremost citizens of Hartford are numbered among his pupils. Windham county has turned out many prominent men to be proud of, and the Ames family among them is Charles L. Ames.

A man's reputation often depends on the size of his bank account.

Information speakers at St. Andrew's Episcopal church in Greenville a number of five minute information addresses were given at the morning and evening services on Sunday in the nation-wide campaign. The women speakers were Mrs. Edward Risley, Mrs. Fitch Dolbear, Mrs. Alex. Ferburg, Miss Ida May Ufford and Miss Martha Campbell. The phases touched upon were sportsman-ship in the church, The campaign and what is a Loyalty. The program in the church school programme and Missions.

The lay reader, Otto Charles Mush, and the church treasurer addressed the congregations in the morning upon "The Church Opportunity" and "Financial Problems" in the evening. Albert Turner and William Crooks were the speakers upon "Jonah in the Church and Social Problems."

Started an immediate investigation. The sheriff traced the wagon tracks from the church to the home of John Dante, a short distance from the church. Mr. Dante told the sheriff that he found his wagon parked on the opposite side of the road Monday morning and said that it was stolen from his place some time during the night and left in front of his house in the morning. Sheriff Fairbanks then traced the wagon tracks to the New Haven freight yards close to a string of cars which arrived some time early Saturday evening. The seals were broken on several cars but the loot was taken from a Western Pacific car.

GETS COMPENSATION FOR AMPUTATION OF TOE

Nine agreements made under the workmen's compensation act have been approved as follows by Commissioner J. J. Donohue:

Richmond Radiator Co., Norwich, employees and Philip N. DePina, Norwich, which, employee, fracture of right foot, at rate of $9.74.

Federal Paper Board Co., Ver- sailles, employees and Adolph Chikowsky, Taftville, employee, injured first and second fingers of left hand, at the rate of $8.20.

Grotton Iron Works, Grotton, employees and Fred Burge, Grotton, employee, bruised left ankle, at the rate of $17.76.

Grotton Iron Works, Grotton, employees and Edward T. Tolman, Newport, Mass., employee, badly lacerated scalp, at the rate of $18.

The Mystic Mfg. Co., Mystic, employees and Harold Gill, Mystic, employee, badly strained abdominal muscles, at the rate of $8.20.

Grotton Iron Works, Grotton, employees and Albert Menghi, New London, employee, fractured right leg, at the rate of $14.76.

Cottrell Lumber Co., Mystic, employees and Joseph Main, Westerly, employee, fractured right arm, at the rate of $10.12.

Grotton Iron Works, Grotton, employees and James Driscoll, Grotton, employee, injured eye, at the rate of $10.72.

Salbeck Printing Press Mfg. Co., the London, employees and Gilbert LaFontaine, New London, employee, burn on right foot, at the rate of $12.62.

54 YEARS SCHOOL TEACHER; STARTED AT EAST KILLINGLY (Special to The Bulletin.)

Hartford, Nov. 24. — Charles A. Ames, of this city, has entered on his fifty-fourth year as a school teacher and although he was seventy-two years old on the ninth of this month, he is as wide-awake and active as ever. He is a truly wonderful man and his school record cannot be beaten in New England. He is a native of good old Windham county, being born in South Killingly, November 2, 1847, and in an interview with "Source" Taylor, The Bulletin's special Hartford correspondent said "his first school was in the Valley district of East Killingly. It was a one room building and he received $25 per month and boarded around the district. Later he taught one year at Attawaugan. One year at Plainfield street, two years at Wauregan, four years at Plainville, and 17 years at Plantsville. I came to the Brown school, Hartford in 1891 as vice principal, became principal in 1892 and still here. The school now has 62 teachers. A few years ago three-fourths of the pupils attending this school were of Jewish faith; today three-fourths are of Italian descent. The school now has 2,925 pupils, but whatever the nationality may be, whatever religious faith the children may have, the school moves along on substantially the same lines of endeavor—teaching the English language the elements of patriotism and obedience to rule and civic law. My father was an abolitionist. I have been a republican all my life. I was an enthusiastic admirer of Theodore Roosevelt; believe that Henry Cabot Lodge is right in his fight in the United States senate. I opposed the so-called "McClure Code" and educational measures before the last legislature. I was appointed a member of the state board of education by Governor Holcomb May, 1915.

Mr. Ames' parents were George and Lucy Ames, who were both teachers in their early lives. Both were born, lived and died in Killingly. The late Hon. Anthony Ames of Danvers, a former member of the state board of education was an uncle of Mr. Ames. Mrs. Willard S. Danforth of Danvers, a teacher of music and Mrs. Seth C. Spaulding of Danvers, a school teacher now under pension, are sisters of Mr. Ames. It is said that there is no school in New England where the grammar school pupils sing as well as the Brown school. This enviable reputation is traced to Mr. Ames, who is a trained musician, and entered into the musical work of the pupils with his own zeal as into the other branches of their instruction.

Mr. Ames was a member of the Principal's Twenty-five Congregational Educational and Teachers' clubs and the Hartford Chamber of Commerce. He was a deacon of the South Congregational church, and was chairman of the committee on pensions of the state Teachers' association. This veteran educator is universally beloved and his great influence in the community life has been greatly felt and appreciated. Some of the foremost citizens of Hartford are numbered among his pupils. Windham county has turned out many prominent men to be proud of, and the Ames family among them is Charles L. Ames.

A man's reputation often depends on the size of his bank account.

Information speakers at St. Andrew's Episcopal church in Greenville a number of five minute information addresses were given at the morning and evening services on Sunday in the nation-wide campaign. The women speakers were Mrs. Edward Risley, Mrs. Fitch Dolbear, Mrs. Alex. Ferburg, Miss Ida May Ufford and Miss Martha Campbell. The phases touched upon were sportsman-ship in the church, The campaign and what is a Loyalty. The program in the church school programme and Missions.

The lay reader, Otto Charles Mush, and the church treasurer addressed the congregations in the morning upon "The Church Opportunity" and "Financial Problems" in the evening. Albert Turner and William Crooks were the speakers upon "Jonah in the Church and Social Problems."

Started an immediate investigation. The sheriff traced the wagon tracks from the church to the home of John Dante, a short distance from the church. Mr. Dante told the sheriff that he found his wagon parked on the opposite side of the road Monday morning and said that it was stolen from his place some time during the night and left in front of his house in the morning. Sheriff Fairbanks then traced the wagon tracks to the New Haven freight yards close to a string of cars which arrived some time early Saturday evening. The seals were broken on several cars but the loot was taken from a Western Pacific car.

The railroad detectives say that the goods already recovered are valued at $2,000, while as much is still uncovered. Of the cloth recovered there were fifty boxes of dimities, twenty-six packages of novelty cloth, many rolls of silk, expensive linen and cotton texture.

According to the railroad detectives

INFORMATION SPEAKERS AT ST. ANDREW'S CHURCH

Started an immediate investigation. The sheriff traced the wagon tracks from the church to the home of John Dante, a short distance from the church. Mr. Dante told the sheriff that he found his wagon parked on the opposite side of the road Monday morning and said that it was stolen from his place some time during the night and left in front of his house in the morning. Sheriff Fairbanks then traced the wagon tracks to the New Haven freight yards close to a string of cars which arrived some time early Saturday evening. The seals were broken on several cars but the loot was taken from a Western Pacific car.

The railroad detectives say that the goods already recovered are valued at $2,000, while as much is still uncovered. Of the cloth recovered there were fifty boxes of dimities, twenty-six packages of novelty cloth, many rolls of silk, expensive linen and cotton texture.

According to the railroad detectives

Started an immediate investigation. The sheriff traced the wagon tracks from the church to the home of John Dante, a short distance from the church. Mr. Dante told the sheriff that he found his wagon parked on the opposite side of the road Monday morning and said that it was stolen from his place some time during the night and left in front of his house in the morning. Sheriff Fairbanks then traced the wagon tracks to the New Haven freight yards close to a string of cars which arrived some time early Saturday evening. The seals were broken on several cars but the loot was taken from a Western Pacific car.

The railroad detectives say that the goods already recovered are valued at $2,000, while as much is still uncovered. Of the cloth recovered there were fifty boxes of dimities, twenty-six packages of novelty cloth, many rolls of silk, expensive linen and cotton texture.

According to the railroad detectives

Started an immediate investigation. The sheriff traced the wagon tracks from the church to the home of John Dante, a short distance from the church. Mr. Dante told the sheriff that he found his wagon parked on the opposite side of the road Monday morning and said that it was stolen from his place some time during the night and left in front of his house in the morning. Sheriff Fairbanks then traced the wagon tracks to the New Haven freight yards close to a string of cars which arrived some time early Saturday evening. The seals were broken on several cars but the loot was taken from a Western Pacific car.

The railroad detectives say that the goods already recovered are valued at $2,000, while as much is still uncovered. Of the cloth recovered there were fifty boxes of dimities, twenty-six packages of novelty cloth, many rolls of silk, expensive linen and cotton texture.

According to the railroad detectives

Started an immediate investigation. The sheriff traced the wagon tracks from the church to the home of John Dante, a short distance from the church. Mr. Dante told the sheriff that he found his wagon parked on the opposite side of the road Monday morning and said that it was stolen from his place some time during the night and left in front of his house in the morning. Sheriff Fairbanks then traced the wagon tracks to the New Haven freight yards close to a string of cars which arrived some time early Saturday evening. The seals were broken on several cars but the loot was taken from a Western Pacific car.

The railroad detectives say that the goods already recovered are valued at $2,000, while as much is still uncovered. Of the cloth recovered there were fifty boxes of dimities, twenty-six packages of novelty cloth, many rolls of silk, expensive linen and cotton texture.

Not A Blemish
marks the perfect appearance of her complexion. Permanent and temporary skin troubles are effectively concealed. Reduces unnatural color and corrects greasy skins. Highly antiseptic, used with beneficial results as a curative agent for 70 years.

Gouraud's Oriental Cream
FERD. HOPKINS & SON, NEW YORK

Started an immediate investigation. The sheriff traced the wagon tracks from the church to the home of John Dante, a short distance from the church. Mr. Dante told the sheriff that he found his wagon parked on the opposite side of the road Monday morning and said that it was stolen from his place some time during the night and left in front of his house in the morning. Sheriff Fairbanks then traced the wagon tracks to the New Haven freight yards close to a string of cars which arrived some time early Saturday evening. The seals were broken on several cars but the loot was taken from a Western Pacific car.

The railroad detectives say that the goods already recovered are valued at $2,000, while as much is still uncovered. Of the cloth recovered there were fifty boxes of dimities, twenty-six packages of novelty cloth, many rolls of silk, expensive linen and cotton texture.

According to the railroad detectives

Started an immediate investigation. The sheriff traced the wagon tracks from the church to the home of John Dante, a short distance from the church. Mr. Dante told the sheriff that he found his wagon parked on the opposite side of the road Monday morning and said that it was stolen from his place some time during the night and left in front of his house in the morning. Sheriff Fairbanks then traced the wagon tracks to the New Haven freight yards close to a string of cars which arrived some time early Saturday evening. The seals were broken on several cars but the loot was taken from a Western Pacific car.

The railroad detectives say that the goods already recovered are valued at $2,000, while as much is still uncovered. Of the cloth recovered there were fifty boxes of dimities, twenty-six packages of novelty cloth, many rolls of silk, expensive linen and cotton texture.

According to the railroad detectives

Started an immediate investigation. The sheriff traced the wagon tracks from the church to the home of John Dante, a short distance from the church. Mr. Dante told the sheriff that he found his wagon parked on the opposite side of the road Monday morning and said that it was stolen from his place some time during the night and left in front of his house in the morning. Sheriff Fairbanks then traced the wagon tracks to the New Haven freight yards close to a string of cars which arrived some time early Saturday evening. The seals were broken on several cars but the loot was taken from a Western Pacific car.

The railroad detectives say that the goods already recovered are valued at $2,000, while as much is still uncovered. Of the cloth recovered there were fifty boxes of dimities, twenty-six packages of novelty cloth, many rolls of silk, expensive linen and cotton texture.

According to the railroad detectives

Started an immediate investigation. The sheriff traced the wagon tracks from the church to the home of John Dante, a short distance from the church. Mr. Dante told the sheriff that he found his wagon parked on the opposite side of the road Monday morning and said that it was stolen from his place some time during the night and left in front of his house in the morning. Sheriff Fairbanks then traced the wagon tracks to the New Haven freight yards close to a string of cars which arrived some time early Saturday evening. The seals were broken on several cars but the loot was taken from a Western Pacific car.

Would You Believe That This is an OPEN CAR?

Yet when the storm comes up this car is snug and cozy. It takes only a moment to adjust.

THE DETROIT WEATHER-PROOF DEMOUNTABLE TOP

Simple Construction—Easily Attached—Weighs 140 Pounds Non-Rattling—MODERATE PRICE

Ford—Chevrolet $120.00 Ford Roadster $95.00
Chevrolet 4-90 Touring $135.00

Sold and Installed By WILLIAM F. BOGUE, Norwich, Conn.

SPRINGFIELD COMMERCIAL BODY CO.
New England Distributors, 385 Liberty Street, Springfield, Mass.
SPRINGFIELD COMMERCIAL BODY CO.
Exposition Building, Cambridge, Mass.

The work was done by a gang of crooks, who have made a complete study of the town and location of the old church. Several of the boxes weighed in the neighborhood of 500 pounds each.

Party For 17th Birthday.
On Saturday evening Miss Helen Willett entertained a large number of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Willett, Pequotnick, in honor of her 17th birthday. That was the feature of the evening, first ladies prize being awarded to Miss Harriett.

Everything is thought to be fair in love, war and a horse trade.

After while a dainty luncheon was served, consisting of Waldorf salad, rolls, olives, cake, French pastry, ice cream and chocolate.

Games and dancing followed. Those present were the Misses Eva Partidge, Harriett Williams, Amy Porter, Laura Euer, Arvi Bogue, Louise Willett, Alice Flynn.

Everything is thought to be fair in love, war and a horse trade.

After while a dainty luncheon was served, consisting of Waldorf salad, rolls, olives, cake, French pastry, ice cream and chocolate.

Games and dancing followed. Those present were the Misses Eva Partidge, Harriett Williams, Amy Porter, Laura Euer, Arvi Bogue, Louise Willett, Alice Flynn.

Everything is thought to be fair in love, war and a horse trade.

After while a dainty luncheon was served, consisting of Waldorf salad, rolls, olives, cake, French pastry, ice cream and chocolate.

SHOPPING GOSSIP
By the Fashion Lady

"Whew!"
whistled the wind, and and I shivered as I thought of my coatless wardrobe. Didn't you?

Thanksgiving is just around the corner—not to have a new coat to dress up in would be to spoil the day indeed.

Better get yours immediately; for there's a nip in the air and a twang to the winds that promises a bit of winter.

I'll tell you a secret—you can't help but get a beauty if you come to THIS store.

The Olevson Co.
Franklin Square

There is no advertising medium in Eastern Connecticut as The Bulletin for business results.

The ORMOND

Buy Your Cordovans Today

Cordovan! This shoe is built of lustrous cordovan. It's the rage. Call and see what a wonderful shoe we offer you in this new model. If you intend to have cordovan, buy today, not tomorrow. Cordovan is harder to obtain than other shoe leathers. You might as well have the perfect fit that is yours among the many Walk-Over shoes.

Walk-Over

The James F. Cosgrove Co.
206 Main Street, Franklin Square

The Boston Store
The Reid & Hughes Co.

First Showing of Mid-Winter Hats

YOUR attention is called to this special display of the very new Mid-Winter Hats. There are many attractive combinations of fur and gold cloth—of velvet and gold lace—and some very handsome brocades.

It is Millinery of distinction and real beauty.

APRONS For Thanksgiving Time

It is an old established custom to offer, and sell Aprons for Thanksgiving. They also make attractive Christmas gifts. Our display is now at its best, and we invite your attention to it.

SHORT BIB APRONS
A considerable variety of clever models is offered in these pretty little Aprons. They are daintily trimmed with fine Satin edgings, veenings and insertions, and some of the rather plain ones are hem-stitched.
50c to $1.75

LONG BIB APRONS
Easier than gathered or fitted styles, and plain or embroidered. Many attractive designs.
75c to $1.50

ROUND TEA APRONS
Dressy little bits of fine Swiss, or sheer lawn, trimmed with laces and fine embroideries. Just as pretty as can be.
39c to $1.75

"Cash and Carry" Bargains
WOMEN'S AND MISSES' GARMENTS

You have heard of sweeping reductions before—but this sale goes a step farther. After the sweeping we mopped and polished, and now we have the prices down to the very framework on which they were built. If you want to buy your winter clothes and buy them "right" do it during this sale. We have shaved the prices down to the very last level.

WOMEN'S AND MISSES' TAILORED SUITS
PRICES WERE AS HIGH AS $59.00

And they were worth the prices we asked. But during the sale they go out on the "Cash and Carry" principle. Materials are fine Silvertones, Wool Velours, Serges, Cheviots and Check Weaves. Handsome models and best colorings.

WOMEN'S AND MISSES' COATS
VALUES UP TO $35.00 OFFERED

And every Coat in the lot is a good one, too. Soft Wool Velour is prominent in the assortment, with many pretty two-tone effects. The styles and colorings are beyond question, both as to style and beauty. These are real bargains.

Coats of the Better Sorts
VALUES UP TO $50.00

All of our better grade Coats have been brought forward, and marked down for the "Cash and Carry" event, and the price they have been marked cannot fail to interest you. Velours and Silvertones are prominent in the display, some of them with seal collars, and all are lined throughout with silk.

CASH AND CARRY PRICE
$35.00

Really Attractive Dresses
VALUES TO $35.00

Styles which show all the little quirks—the points which make them different from the ordinary—qualities which will command themselves to those who know and appreciate the best. Most of them are made of French Serge, Rho Jersey or pleasing novelty silks.

CASH AND CARRY PRICE
$24.75

Dainty Voile Blouses, worth $2.25—Cash and Carry Price $1.79